Who are the NAHB Remodelers?

Recognizing the need for consumer education and protection in the area of home remodeling, the Home Builders Association of Winston-Salem formed a chapter of the NAHB Remodelers in 1986. One of the primary purposes of this group is to provide the consumer with a dependable service through which they can locate quality remodeling firms with reputable backgrounds. The membership is limited to licensed builders and other service providers who are all members of the Home Builders Association of Winston-Salem and who have demonstrated their dependability and proven their trustworthiness through time in business and customer satisfaction.

As members of the prestigious National Association of Home Builders and the Home Builders Association of Winston-Salem, all NAHB Remodelers subscribe not only to the NAHB Remodelers Code of Ethics but also the Home Builders Code of Ethics. NAHB Remodelers also offer mediation through the Better Business Bureau, should there be any conflict between a remodeler and the consumer.

When you are considering a remodeling project — large or small — look for a member of the Home Builders Association of Winston-Salem's NAHB Remodelers.

Craftsmen You Can Trust.

The Lowest Bidder

It's unwise to pay too much, but it's worse to pay too little. When you pay too much, you lose a little money - that's all. When you pay too little, you sometimes lose everything because the thing you bought was incapable of doing the job it was bought to do. The Common Law of Business Balance prohibits paying little and getting a lot — it can't be done. If you deal with the lowest bidder, it is well to add something for the risk you run, and if you will have enough, to pay for something better.
